Dear Parish Family: "Lord teach us to pray." The plea of the Apostles in this weekend's Gospel is a good prayer for all of us at St. Charles. Lord, teach us to pray and to make our lives a prayer, everything done and said for you and with you.

Scripture scholars agree that the core of Jesus' being was a clear and continuous sense of God as his personal Father. May our prayer draw us into God's love and help us feel God's personal love for us.

Mass can be such a routine that we hardly put our hearts into it. Lord, help us to sincerely pray at Mass, to fully and consciously participate as your family. Thanks for joining together in prayer and song at each Mass. It really does take an effort. For me too...

Our parish staff had a rewarding and challenging retreat last week. I thank each staff member for their love of the parish and their wanting for us all to work together for the good of St. Charles and those we serve. Please pray for your staff and our new beginnings together.

Peace to you, FR. JOHN

Are you registered in the Parish? There are registration forms on the tables at the church entrances if you are new in the parish, or if you have been here but have not registered. Thanks for filling one out and Welcome to you!

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Abraham was a man of faith, but he wasn't blind to the social evils around him. Yet if he prayed for justice, might not the innocent be swept away with the guilty? Abraham knew how to strike a good bargain. But can people use such tactics with God? Abraham put his trust in God's mercy. For the sake of 50 righteous, God would spare the city. What about 30? 20? 10? God could not be outdone when it comes to compassion. For the sake of just one virtuous person, God would spare all.

Paul's knowledge of God's mercy was personal. From his own experience, he knew that his sinful flesh was buried in the waters of salvation. By faith he was raised to new life by God, who raised Jesus from the dead.

Jesus taught us to pray with confidence to God, who is 'Father' to us all. The Lord's Prayer is a prayer of trust for all who journey in faith. Because God is just and merciful, God's name should be revered above all things. Each day God offers us the bread of life and pardon for sin. The debt we owe has been snatched up by Christ and nailed on the cross with him. The door to God's mercy is open wide to all who ask and seek in faith.

Pray the Lord's Prayer for someone who does not know God's mercy. Pray the Lord's Prayer for your own needs.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING: We encourage parents to reflect on these questions at home each week with their children and family. Start talking. Share your faith!

In today's Gospel the disciples watch Jesus as he is praying. One of them asks Jesus to teach them to pray. Jesus shares the Lord's prayer with them. He then tells them how important it is to keep asking and they will receive, and that God knows best how our prayers should be answered.

What ways can you think of to convince people to pray more often? How can you appreciate and share daily bread and all the gifts you receive from the Father each day?

THANK YOU: We would like to thank everyone for the prayers, concern and cards sent to us during our recent illnesses. Marguerite and Denis Reilly

HOST A CCI CATHOLIC STUDENT: Share your home with a student from around the world. Boys and girls from Europe, Asia, Latin America come with insurance and spending money. They will participate in church, youth group, service projects, sports, school, and family. Center for Cultural Interchange 1 888 440 8750.
