ST. VINCENT DEPAUL: During the week of Oct 22-26 the St. Charles Conference of the St. Vincent dePaul Society made 33 food calls, and 1 utility call for a total of 137 people helped.

In our food room we need flour, cooking oil, tomato sauce, eggs, powdered milk, all personal hygiene products, toilet paper, canned fruit and dry cereal. We need to fill the food box every week. Also, keep getting foods for a Thanksgiving Dinner. We have many volunteers who pick up food and keep the shelves supplied with food. They do a great job. Thanks to everyone who helps to carry out our mission to help those in need. Any questions call Polly 503 284 7940.

Dear Parish family: Happy Spaghetti Dinner this Sunday and happy Feast of St. Charles, a church reformer at the time of the Council of Trent, who devoted his life to caring for the needy as well. Thanks for everyone's good cheer and hard work and a big welcome to everyone at our St. Charles dinner table! We are like Zacchaeus in the Gospel who welcomed the Lord with joy. We welcome one another and all our guests with open arms. May God continue to bless St. Charles parishioners with big hearts!

Peace to you, Father John

NOVEMBER 4, 2007
THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector, the ultimate sinner according to the small-minded religious leaders. Yet this little man was attracted to Jesus and was even willing to go out on a limb to see him. Jesus did not pass him by or regard him unworthy of his attention. Jesus came to search out the sinner and save the lost. Though people were quick to judge Zacchaeus, he stood his ground. He was not the scoundrel they thought him to be. He gave to the poor and treated others fairly. If he cheated anyone, he made amends. Because of his honest estimation of himself, salvation came to Zacchaeus's house that day, for this is what it means to be a person of faith.

Paul prayed constantly that the church would be made worthy at the coming of the Lord in judgment. He prayed that God would accept every good work performed with honest intention. The psalmist declares that the Lord is slow to anger and shows great kindness to the sinner. God loves every created thing, but more than that, God is compassionate toward all who repent.

Have I made an honest inventory of my soul? Have I repented of any misdeeds?

WHOSE BIRTHDAY IS IT ANYWAY? A workshop led by Fr. John, Sunday, Nov 11, 9:45-10:45 am for parents while your children are in Faith Formation and anyone else interested in celebrating Christmas in your homes in a less hectic and more meaningful way. Dear Friends from St. Charles: Wishing you a Happy Feast of St. Charles and a wonderful Spaghetti Dinner celebration. I will surely miss the good food and the fun company this year. Maybe you should ship me some sauce and meatballs. It's the best dinner in town. I'm doing fine, getting used to being in another place, but St. Charles and Portland will always be number 1 on my list. I'm missing Portland and my friends, but not the rain. Weather wise it's been beautiful here, am not looking forward to the winter though. Classes are going well. Parish work is interesting, as we do not have any staff here, but we have a cook and she is Korean because the pastor is Korean. Korean food is really nice and I am becoming an expert on using the chop sticks, but already getting tired of it. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers always. Wishing you and Fr. John a lovely day on the 4th.

Peace always, Fr. Agnelo Gomes, sfx (of New York)
